Furthermore, the complainant states that Alvaro DELRIO-Garcia, Fidel LOPEZ-Payan, Jorge LOPEZ-Tiscareno, are citizens of a country other than the United States; that said aliens have admitted that they are deportable; that their testimony is material, that it is impracticable to secure their attendance at the trial by subpoena; and they are material witnesses in relation to this criminal charge and should be held or admitted to bail pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3144.

On July 01, 2008, Border Patrol Agent C. Horal was performing line watch duties near Campo, California. This area is located approximately ten miles east of the Tecate, California Port of Entry and approximately twelve miles north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

At approximately 6:00 A.M., Agent Horal responded to an activation of a seismic intrusion device. Upon arrival in the area, Agent Horal found fresh footprints that had crossed the road he was driving on. Agent Horal followed the footprints until he found sixteen individuals attempting to hide in the brush. One of the individuals was later identified as defendant, Rene GONZALEZ-Landeros and one was later identified as defendant Gerardo CORTEZ-Copado. Agent Horal immediately identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned all sixteen individuals as to their citizenship. All sixteen subjects admitted to having entered the United States illegally without any immigration or travel documents that would allow them to be in, or remain in the United States legally. All subjects also admitted to being natives and citizens of Mexico. At 8:30 A.M., the defendant and all other subjects were placed under arrest and transported to the Pine Valley Border Patrol Station for further processing.

DEFENDANT STATEMENT:

Defendant Rene GONZALEZ-Landeros was advised of his Miranda Rights. The defendant stated that he understood and was willing to answer any questions. The defendant was again questioned regarding his citizenship and immigration status. He stated that he is a citizen and national of Mexico without any immigration documents to be in or remain in the United States legally.

When presented with both his immigration and criminal histories, the defendant stated that they were in fact his. The defendant stated that he had crossed illegally into the United States on Sunday June 29, 2008. The defendant stated that he was in the front of the group but denied that he was involved in alien smuggling. GONZALEZ stated that he knew CORTEZ was at his side most of the time. The defendant stated that Gerardo CORTEZ-Copado was the foot guide in charge of smuggling the group on this event.
